

Goals for Sprint 2

1. Set up the initial database and connect it to the application.
2. Come up with the interface for User, Group, Message classes.
3. Implement User interface for free users with no privilege.
4. Write tests to verify the connection and working of database with respect to users.
5. Create and track issues for tasks in Github and assign them to respective developers.